Scott, George: d. 1688. The model of the government of the province of East-New-Jersey ... 1685. (Card 2)

... The most valuable part of the work is a series of letters from the early settlers to New Jersey. "The Model" was plagiarized by Samuel Smith in his History of New Jersey, 1721, and is quoted by Bancroft; but James Graham, author of the Life and progress of the United States (1827), first attached due importance to it. Copies of the original, which are very rare, are in the British museum, the Edinburgh Advocates' library, at Göttingen, in Harvard college library, and in the library of the New Jersey historical society, and two others are in private hands in America. In some copies a passage (p. 87) recommending religious freedom as an inducement to emigration is modified.—"Diet. Nat. Biog."

Montanus, Arnoldus, 1625?-1683.

Atlas chinensis: being a second part of a relation of remarkable passages in two embassies from the East-India company of the United provinces, to the Vice-Roy Singlamong and General Taising Lipovi, and to Kanchi, emperor of China and East-Tartary. With a relation of the Netherlands assisting the Tartar against Coingas, and the Chinese fleet, who still then were masters of the sea. And a more exact geographical description than formerly, both of the whole empire of China in general, and in particular of every of the fifteen provinces. Collected out of their several writings and journals, by
